HSBC AssetVantage Ladies Golf Union Championship 2008

On Thursday 06 November 2008, the HSBC AssetVantage Ladies Golf Union Championship, sponsored by HSBC Mauritius gathered an amazing number of 48 participants. It took place in the enjoyable cadre of the golf course of “Le Chateau de Bel Ombre”. The tournament kicked off at 07 30. The excitement and thrill was building as the clock counted down to the taste of competition and challenge of the game. “We are once more very thankful to having HSBC’s support and trust in making the tournament so unique and special!” says Valérie Espitalier Noël – Head of the organising committee.

“HSBC Mauritius is indeed privileged to be associated with an event of such scope for 3 great years. The game of golf is strongly linked to teaching 3 key values, that are absolutely essential for success in business: self-confidence, decision making, perseverance” added Paul Mullins, Manager Personal Financial Services, HSBC Mauritius.

The tournament took end at 13 30, followed by a prize giving ceremony, where winners were announced. Nathalie Serret, for the second time won the tournament - Gold Division. “It was not that easy to win this year's championship. Each year, there are new challengers, hence a constant change in the level of competition and thus golf playing itself. I am very proud to have won” she concluded.
